

Dr. Peter Marshall McLewin

925 Ingleside Rd, Norfolk, VA 23502

Cell +1 757 685 1526

Born in the Republic of South Africa to missionary parents, Peter McLewin came to the USA in 1972 to attend Miami Christian College in Miami, Florida. He graduated in 1976, B.Sc. with a double major in Bible and Behavioral Science. After moving to the Tidewater area in Virginia, he pursued graduate studies at Regent University and earned a Master's degree (2003) and Doctor of Ministry degree (2004) from Providence Bible College and Theological Seminary.

His love of teaching is evidenced in a wide range of educational settings, from Ancient History teacher at Homeschool Plus, an outreach of Ingleside Church, to Old Testament and Biblical Geography for Providence Bible College and Theological Seminary.

Peter McLewin has travelled extensively on mission trips and educational tours to Bible lands. Biblical Insights from his visits to ancient archaeological sites and his teaching work are featured on "The McLewin Lifework Library" DVD that he produced. He has lectured in more than 50 countries on five continents.

In 1976, he and Margaret Harding English of Westmoreland County, Virginia were married and together they delight in their five children and eight grandchildren. Margaret travels with Peter when they are called upon to lead member care workshops. They are both certified by International Training Partners to facilitate Sharpening Your Interpersonal Skills workshops.

Currently Dr. McLewin is in his thirty-fifth year as the senior pastor of Ingleside Church, a joyfully multicultural congregation. The life of the church can be explored at: <http://inglesidechurch.com>

Numerous organizations have called upon Dr. McLewin to help train their leaders. He typically spends two weeks a month visiting indigenous ministries and conducting leadership seminars. To support the international side of the work, Dr. McLewin launched Ingleside International in January 2011. Ingleside International focuses on Leadership Development and Economic Empowerment. Regular email updates keep our friends informed about how God is using this committed service to empower national leaders around the world.
